

Welcome to the Museum Travel Alliance!

Great news! Through the Bullock Texas State History Museum you now have exclusive access to a curated selection of travel opportunities led by renowned museum scholars and curators. From India to Ireland, our group travel programs are carefully crafted to delight discerning and curious travelers. Read on to learn more about how you can take advantage of your museum's MTA partnership.

What can I expect on a Museum Travel Alliance (MTA) travel program?

By land, river, or sea, we emphasize private, exclusive, and behind-the-scenes access to museums, private collections, gardens, private homes, libraries, artist studios, and more. Each trip is led by an expert scholar who provides private lectures just for our group. You can view all available travel programs on our website, MuseumTravelAlliance.com under "Where We Travel" or open your phone camera and point it at the QR Code to the right.

Where does MTA travel?

We offer an exciting array of domestic and international trips. Last year, our programs took travelers to more than 40 countries including Spain, Cuba, Austria, Japan, Iceland, Mexico, Nepal, Italy, Morocco and many more! Some of our groups' favorite moments include:

- Special, curator-led access to the Rijksmuseum's unprecedented exhibition of Vermeer masterpieces
- A private after-hours tour and reception at the Acropolis Museum with a senior curator
- Going beyond the usual barriers to touch the paws of Egypt's Great Sphinx
- A private, hour-long encounter with Velasquez's incomparable Las Meninas at the Museo Nacional del Prado before public hours
- Exclusive off-hours visits of Casa Azul, Frida Kahlo's home and studio
- Behind-the-scenes tours of Kyoto's iconic Ryoan-ji and Kinkaku-ji temples
- VIP access to art fairs including Mexico's Zona Maco, the Venice Biennale, Art SG in Singapore, and the Bangkok Art Biennale

You can view all of our current trips on our website, MuseumTravelAlliance.com under "Where We Travel".
