Bullock Museum to host Montopolis in a stunning performance of *Enchanted Rock

What: The Bullock Museum is proud to present Enchanted Rock, a stunning multimedia experience that combines live music, Chickasaw storytelling, and vivid photographs from Enchanted Rock State Natural Area. This special showing will feature the artistry of Austin-based indie chamber music group Montopolis, a slideshow of Rip Shaub's stunning landscape photography, and the compelling legends of Enchanted Rock as told by Chickasaw storyteller, Amy Bluemel.

When: The performance will take place as a part of the Museum's Third Thursday series on Thursday, February 15 at 6 p.m. Extended exhibition gallery access and drop-in art station will begin at 5 p.m.

The performance and art station are included in the price of exhibition admission. Admission to the performance is on a first come first served basis. Tickets are available now at <https://www.thestoryoftexas.com/visit/calendar/education/third-thursdays-20240215>

Where: The Bullock Museum is located at 1800 N. Congress Ave. Austin, TX 78701.

Media Info: Please contact Lindsay Muncy to schedule a press visit. Photography will be available to media outlets for the purpose of reporting on the event.
