A large, five-pointed star sculpture, made of dark, polished metal, stands prominently in the foreground. The star is mounted on a base of several stone blocks. Behind the star is the Bullock Texas State History Museum, a large, light-colored building with arched windows and doorways. The sky is overcast and grey. The overall image has a muted, greyish-blue color palette.

BULLOCK TEXAS STATE HISTORY MUSEUM

VENUE GUIDE

BULLOCK TEXAS STATE HISTORY MUSEUM

Located in the heart of Austin, the Bullock Texas State History Museum is a premier event venue.

Host your guests amidst the backdrops of our striking bronze Lone Star sculpture on the plaza, the soaring spiral staircase of our rotunda, and the captivating architecture of our Grand Lobby. Our distinctive and versatile indoor spaces can be transformed to create elegant and memorable experiences for any event including weddings, galas, mitzvahs, holiday celebrations, corporate events, film screenings, and more. The Museum is fully ADA accessible, includes easy access for vans and buses, and features an on-site parking garage.

GRAND LOBBY

The Grand Lobby of the Museum is an elegant space featuring our beautiful open rotunda, striking spiral staircase, colorful terrazzo mosaic, and impressive granite architecture.

The rotunda leads into our first floor lobby, a one-of-a-kind setting that your guests will remember forever. The lobby is flanked by soaring granite columns which frame the quotes of great Texans. The space is 9,750 sq. ft. and can seat up to 450 guests, accommodate 600 people standing, or host up to 525 people seated theater-style.

BOB BULLOCK ATRIUM

Located on the second floor of the Museum, the Bob Bullock Atrium is a perfect space for an intimate event.

Great for a cocktail hour or seated dinner, this location features an arched layout showcasing a statue of our namesake with a stunning view of the terrazzo mosaic and our Lone Star Plaza. The Bullock Atrium has 3,750 sq. ft. of space that comfortably seats up to 200 guests, host up to 250 standing, or accommodate 225 people seated theater style.

AUSTIN ROOM

The Austin Room, located on the third floor of the Bullock Texas State History Museum, is perfect for hosting everything from corporate meetings to social celebrations.

This versatile space is a blank canvas waiting to be turned into a spectacular experience for your guests. The Austin Room has 6,500 sq. ft. of space that can hold 350 people seated, 500 people standing, or up to 400 people seated theater style.

BOARDROOM

The Boardroom is a formal meeting space located on the fourth floor of the Museum.

With comfortable leather chairs and a bird's eye view of the rotunda, this space is ideal for executive and corporate off-site meetings, and seats up to 18 people.

TEXAS SPIRIT THEATER

The Texas Spirit Theater is Austin's only multi-sensory special-effects theater that immerses visitors in the film with crackling lightning, pounding rain, and a few other surprises.

The theater's 3 screens are set behind a generously sized stage that can be customized for film screenings, presentations, and conferences. In house shows include Star of Destiny, a 16 minute overview of Texas history, and Shipwrecked, a 26 minute live action reenactment of the sinking of the La Belle, and its colonists attempt to survive the Texan wilderness. The Texas Spirit Theater can seat 190 guests.

EXHIBITION GALLERIES

Our three floors of exhibition spaces explore more than 16,000 years of Texas history.

The Museum's Texas History Galleries and two special exhibition spaces showcase hundreds of original artifacts and innovative, immersive multimedia, providing an ever-changing experience and endless new stories.
